Paris, February 12, N. S.

ON the 10th Inſtant the Count de Plelo ſet out from hence on his Embaſſy to Denmark, as will ſhortly the Marqueſs de Monti for the Court of the King of Poland. The Lotteries which are to be drawn Monthly for the Payment of the Annuities upon the Town-Houſe, gain great Credit; and that of this Month exceeds the laſt by 25000 Livres. The Marchioneſs de Chatillon is dead, as is likewiſe Father Truchet, a Monk of the great Convent of Carmes, and honorary Sub-Dean of the Royal Academy of Sciences.

Whitehall, February 8.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant His Conge d'Elire to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough, for electing the Right Reverend Father in God Dr. Robert Clavering Lord Biſhop of Landaff to the See of Peterborough, vacant by the Death of Dr. White Kennet.

Whitehall, Jan. 24, 1728-9.

Whereas by an Inquiſition taken at Walkerne, in the County of Hertford, the 23d Day of December laſt, before the Coroner for the ſaid County, on the View of the Body of Thomas Addams, Jun. Gent. it has been found, that the ſaid Thomas Addams was, on Saturday Night then laſt paſt, about Six or Seven of the Clock, murdered and robbed in Bennington Fields, in the ſaid County, by being ſhot into the Right Papp, ſome Inches into his Body, with a ſmall Gun loaded with Bullets, as 'twas ſuppoſed by the Wound: His Majeſty, for the Diſcovery of ſo heinous a Crime, is graciouſly pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of the Accomplices therein concerned (except the Perſon by whom the ſaid Murder was committed) who ſhall diſcover the reſt of thoſe Criminals, ſo as they be apprehended and convicted. TOWNSHEND.

Thomas Addams of Walkerne, in the ſaid County of Hertford, Father of the Deceaſed, does hereby promiſe the Reward of Forty Pounds to ſuch Perſon who ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery as is above mentioned; to be paid at his Houſe in Walkerne, or at the Earl of Eſſex's in St. James's Square. Thomas Addams.

Whitehall, February 4, 1728-9.

Whereas the Toyſhop of Anne Markham, under St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleet-ſtreet, was lately broke open and robb'd of ſeveral Goods wrought in Gold and Silver, to the Value of above Two Hundred Pounds: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Robbery, is pleas'd to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of the Criminals who ſhall diſcover his Accomplices, ſo as they or any of them be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

BAYLIS MAYOR.

Martis Quarto die Februarii, 1728. Annoque Regni Regis GEORGII Secundi, Magnæ Britanniæ, &c. Secundo.

WHEREAS Complaint hath been made to this Court, That great Numbers of looſe and diſorderly Perſons do often aſſemble themſelves at the Place and Times of Execution of the Condemned Malefactors, and that the proper Officers appointed to attend ſuch Executions are frequently Inſulted and Moleſted in the Performance of their Duty: And that the ſaid Officers who are ordered to aſſiſt the Perſons appointed by the Company of Barbers and Surgeons in carrying a Dead Body of the Malafactors to their Hall to be Diſſected, according to the Act of Parliament, for the Inſtruction of the Members of the ſaid Company in the Science of Anatomy, are frequently Abuſed and Inſulted, and are ſometimes prevented from carrying away ſuch Dead Body, as aforeſaid. This Court doth therefore order, That the Under-Sheriff of Middleſex, and the Officers of the Two Compters, who are to attend to ſee the Execution performed, do take Special Care to prevent any ſuch Diſturbances and Inſults: And that they aſſiſt the Officers of the ſaid Company of Barbers and Surgeons in carrying away the Dead Bodies to their Hall. And that if any Perſon or Perſons do in any manner Oppoſe or Hinder the carrying away any ſuch Body, That the ſaid Officers do ſeize and apprehend ſuch Perſon or Perſons and carry him or them before a Magiſtrate, to be dealt with according to Law. And if any Perſons, to the Number of Twelve or more, ſhall Obſtruct or Hinder the ſaid Officers in their Duty, That then the Under-Sheriff of Middleſex ſhall read the Proclamation in the Act of the Firſt of King George the Firſt, to diſperſe ſuch diſorderly Perſons. And if they continue together in ſuch diſorderly manner for the Space of an Hour after ſuch Proclamation, That then the ſaid Officers do apprehend ſuch Offenders, and carry them before ſome Magiſtrate, to be dealt with according to Law. And it is further ordered, That this Order be printed and publiſhed in ſome of the Publick News-Papers, and affixed at Newgate, the Place of Execution, and other publick Places within this City and Liberties thereof.

JACKSON.

Cuſtom-Houſe, London, Feb. 3, 1728.

By the Commiſſioners for managing and cauſing to be levied and collected His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, &c.

The Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of this City having on a Petition of the Merchants and others, iſſued an Order dated the 14th of laſt Month, for putting in Execution An Act of Common-Council for regulating the Exchange Hours, whereby it is directed that the Time for Merchants and all others meeting there, ſhall be from Twelve o'Clock at Noon till Two of the ſame Day. And it being directed by the 18th Rule in the Book of Rates, that the Officers who ſit above Stairs in the Cuſtom-Houſe ſhall attend the Service of their ſeveral Places from Nine to Twelve of the Clock in the Forenoon:

The Commiſſioners have on this Occaſion repeated their Orders to the ſaid Officers to give due Attendance accordingly for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs, and all Merchants and others concerned are deſired to take Notice thereof.

Advertiſements.
